Youth 9-13

Who We Are

Navy League Cadets are boys and girls between the ages of 9 to 13. Navy League Cadets come from many different backgrounds, but they all share a common interest:

Making Friends and Having Fun!

Our program is based on a naval theme. This gives you a chance to try many different things, in a place where teamwork and respect are very important. Also, Cadets that do really well can earn promotions and awards!

Most corps (that's what we call each group) meet one evening every week. Corps will also plan occasional weekend activities or trips.

Information for Parents

Our Program

The Navy League Cadet Program is committed to developing Canada's youth through moral guidance and encouragement, as well as mental and physical training designed to develop patriotism, good citizenship, a sense of duty, self-discipline, self-respect and respect for others, in a modern nautical environment built on sound naval traditions.

Our Volunteers

Navy League Cadets are trained and supervised by skilled and motivated volunteers. Navy League Officers and Instructors come from many different backgrounds and professions however they all have one thing in common; an interest in developing our nation's youth.

In addition to each volunteer's unique background and skills, all officers and instructors receive training from The Navy League of Canada. This training provides all instructors with the skills required to work with today's youth. All volunteers are carefully screened by The Navy League of Canada, including personal background checks.

Cost

Although some corps charge a small administration fee, most corps are free. To make this possible, your child will be expected to participate in fundraising activities. Fundraising helps your child develop responsibility, community spirit, and work ethic and ensures that every child can participate, regardless of their family's financial situation.

Keep us in mind

In addition to Navy League Cadets, we also have a senior program for youth 12-18 - Royal Canadian Sea Cadets. Beyond youth training, we are also involved in public education and advocacy on issues relating to the responsible use of our oceans, lakes and rivers.

The Navy League of Canada offers a variety of volunteer opportunities and we welcome your involvement. Whether you are looking for professional development opportunities, like serving on a board or committee, or simply looking to have fun working with youth.

We are also a Registered Charity and welcome any financial support you are prepared to offer. Established in 1895, The Navy League of Canada has a strong track record of supporting our country, communities and youth. This means you can give with the confidence that your money is working to build a better nation – one child at a time.
